

General Liability (GL)

What is General Liability Insurance?

General Liability provides financial protection from unforeseen claims, general liability insurance is a smart investment. While it's not always required by law, liability insurance for small businesses may be required by certain contracts or lease arrangements.

biBerk vs competitors

We offer up to 20% off market price with a broad appetite for various business types and a simple, low-friction application process. With a 75% average quote rate, clients can easily add umbrella coverage and explore Workers' Compensation, and Professional Liability. Our simplified payment options, including 10% down with 10 installments, quarterly, and annual options, add convenience.

General Liability Highlights

Offering coverage in 28 states and serving over 80% of the market, we provide a wide range of insurance options tailored to meet your business needs. We have many coverage options available such as contractors' tools and equipment, installation, employee benefits, employment practices, cyber and data compromise, liquor liability, as well as hired and non-owned auto coverage.

Get easy protection with biBerk General Liability Insurance
from the costs of:

- Property Damage
- Product Liability
- Bodily Injury
- Libel
- Slander
- Copyright Infringement

General Liability Industries

- Auto Services
- Contractors
 - Including General Contractors, no years in business requirements
- Mercantile
- Office
- Processing & Services
 - Barber Shop, Beauty Salon, Photographer, Nail Salon, Exercise or Health Club
- Wholesale
- Convenience Store / Gas
- Restaurants

